

Ryan Rongo

Project Manager

Project Responsibilities: Ryan will be the project manager. Ryan will be involved in the project from start-to-finish, and will direct and coordinate project schedules, resources, and equipment. As well as maintenance of project documents, plans, and reports. Ryan will work closely with the other members of the team to coordinate all aspects of the foodservice equipment requirements and ensure the clients needs are met as the project evolves.

Personal Stats

16+ years in the industry

6 years with S2O Consultants

DeVry University
Bachelor Studies

Professional Member Food Service
Consultants Society International

LEED AP BD+C

Ryan has over 16 years in the Foodservice Industry, including 12+ years with M.L. Rongo, Inc foodservice sales company, where Ryan was project manager. Leading the construction project management function on numerous large projects including sports venues, hotels, health care, corporate dining, and higher education facilities. Ryan is LEED AP BD+C accredited and is an FCSI Professional member.

